TODAY IN HEADBÄNGER HISTORY

June 5, 2003 – Singer Scott Weiland is picked to be the singer for a new project featuring ex-Guns N' Roses members Slash, Duff McKagan and Matt Sorum which later becomes Velvet Revolver.

June 5, 1964 – The Swing Auditorium in San Bernardino, CA is the first U.S. venue to host the Rolling Stones. The Stones were supporting their first album.

June 5, 1975 – Ex-Pink Floyd member Syd Barrett sneaks into the recording sessions for the Wish You Were Here album at Abbey Road studios in London. At the time, he was not initially recognized by his former bandmates because he had shaved off all of his hair, including his eyebrows, and had gained a lot of weight. The band was recording “Shine On You Crazy Diamond,” which was about Barrett.

June 5, 1964 – David Jones and the King Bees release “Liza Jane”, their first recording. Jones later becomes David Bowie.

June 5, 1968 – Senator Robert Kennedy is shot and mortally wounded at the Ambassador Hotel in Los Angeles after his speech campaigning for the Democratic nomination for president of the United States. This tragic event influences David Crosby to write “Long Time Gone” for Crosby, Stills & Nash and The Rolling Stones to add the lyrics, “Who killed the Kennedys?” to the now iconic song “Sympathy For The Devil.”
